Re: Krepps v. Reiner, et al.; S.D.N.Y. Docket No. 07 CV 9884 (RWS)(GWG)

Dear Judge Sweet:

This firm represents Defendants Insead, Insead North America, Inc. s/h/a Insead North America and Michael C. Miller, Esq. (collectively "Defendants") in the above case.

We write to respectfully request that the Court adjust the briefing schedule to allow Plaintiff until May 2, 2008 to file any opposition to Defendants' Motion to Stay Discovery filed on Friday, April 18, 2008. Upon receipt of the Court's Order earlier today concerning the submission of the motion, we learned that our Notice incorrectly indicated that Plaintiff would have ten business days, rather than four to serve any opposition papers as provided in Local Rule 6.1. Defendants do not wish to receive any special consideration here and would file their reply papers on Monday May 5, 2008, i.e., one business day after Mr. Krepps.

Upon discovery of this issue, we promptly informed Plaintiff. To prevent any possible prejudice, we offered to agree to any request Plaintiff might make to adjust the schedule by providing him with two additional business days to respond and serve his opposition, but Plaintiff indicated he would not be accommodated in this manner. We would therefore respectfully ask the Court to make this change and apologize for any inconvenience imposed.
